Mother: Teacher, this school needs improvements done, come with us to visit the mayor and ask for his help.

Teacher: You think he can do it?

Mother: Well, we won't lose anything in asking

Teacher: Let's go then!

Having an adequate school for our children is quality education.

We need more and better government and municipal investment with the support of Congress. If your candidate does not support education, change candidate.

Guatemala, I want you happy!
