

Audiovisual: Mother language

Woman 1: We need to do something about school. Jacinto doesn't want to go anymore. He says he can't understand the teacher.

Woman 2: We should demand that our children be taught in their mother language

Teaching in the mother language is quality education.

We need more and better government and municipal investment with the support of Congress. If your candidate does not support education, change candidate.

Guatemala, I want you happy!
