

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

EAST AFRICA
TRADE
+ INVESTMENT
HUB

AGOA In East Africa

African Growth and Opportunity Act

a U.S. Government trade preference program

What it offers

African producers the opportunity to export thousands of types of goods, including apparel, to the U.S. without paying import duties.

7

The East Africa Trade and Investment Hub supports seven East African countries to increase their exports to the U.S. through AGOA -

Ethiopia, Kenya, Madagascar, Mauritius, Rwanda, Tanzania, and Uganda.

Quick fact - New jobs in Madagascar, since AGOA reinstatement

26,600

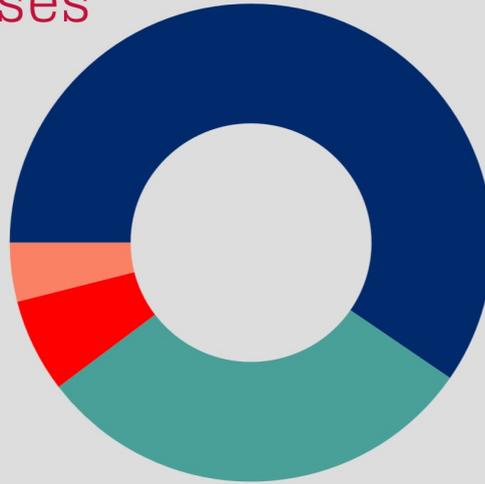

The Hub helps Malagasy companies improve their products, get American market information, and connect with American buyers - driving business and investment through AGOA to create jobs.

AGOA - Connecting U.S. and African businesses

$725 Million - Value of AGOA exports from the top four countries in eastern Africa, Oct. 2014 - Sept. 2015.

$725 Million

Source: U.S. International Trade Commission

■ Kenya (60%) ■ Mauritius (30%) ■ Ethiopia (6%) ■ Madagascar (4%)

Share of AGOA exports per country, 2014 - 2015

Value of Hub-facilitated AGOA exports to the U.S.

$81 Million

From the top four countries in eastern Africa, Oct. 2014 - Sept. 2015.

■ Kenya (51%) ■ Ethiopia (21%) ■ Mauritius (17%)
■ Madagascar (12%)

Share of AGOA exports per country, 2014 - 2015

Learn more:

trade.gov/agoa/
eatradehub.org
AGOA.info