9. STATEMENT OF DUTIES

   BASIC FUNCTION OF POSITION

   The USAID Development Assistance Specialist (Financial Systems Strengthening) supports, designs, and manages market development activities by improving the enabling environment for financial investment, and promoting functioning financial markets. The Specialist is the principal Office and Mission advisor for finance (including microfinance, commercial finance, and alternative sources of finance – such as equity and venture capital investments), increasing access to capital and credit, and risk-mitigation programs (i.e., loan guarantee programs and insurance). The Specialist leads Mission efforts to strengthen domestic resource mobilization, public financial management, and domestic accountability and transparency, in order to assist Government of Ghana (GoG) efforts to plan, finance, and manage its journey to self-reliance.

   The Specialist serves as an advisor to the Mission Director/Deputy Mission Director, and the Mission Management Team, and to counterparts in the Embassy, the GoG, local leaders, the private sector, implementing partners (IPs), and other business professionals.

   MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

   a. Advisor on Private and Public Finance (25%)

   The USAID Development Assistance Specialist (Financial Systems Strengthening) provides seasoned advice on finance, increasing access to capital and credit, and risk-mitigation programs to the Mission, including advising Mission staff and partners on developing programs and contracts for financial- and credit-related activities. The Specialist liaises with other Mission staff, trade professionals, and partners to ensure Mission finance programs are realistic, and follow USAID and USG regulations. The Specialist advises on strengthening domestic resource mobilization, public financial management, and domestic accountability and transparency, in order to assist GoG efforts to plan, finance, and manage its journey to self-reliance. The Specialist analyzes opportunities and constraints, in order to increase access to finance and credit from domestic or international sources; closely follows current political, social, and economic trends in Ghana, and analyzes how these trends effect the development and implementation of Mission economic growth programs; and, prepares analytical reports on finance, microfinance, credit, and competitiveness within Ghana’s political, economic, and social context. The Specialist keeps abreast of and analyzes current developments and forecasts in Ghana’s public finances, including regulations, revenue-generating strategies, and public financial management, including preparing reports and briefings on interactions and meetings with Ghanaian policy experts, decision-makers, donors, and think tanks, and disseminating them throughout the Mission. The Specialist maintains close contact with GoG and private-sector actors active in finance, microfinance, credit, and in foreign or domestic investments; gathers published and raw data on finance and credit from a wide variety of sources both nationally and internationally; and, maintains up to date, accurate information on trends, opportunities, international businesses active in the financial sector in Ghana, and key players in international, regional, and national finance. The Specialist provides advice and counsel on Ghanaian economic policies, and on international financial agreements or conventions, providing analysis and proposing policy reforms to the Mission and partners, including effective means to promote policy changes.

b. Management of Financial Sector and Credit Activities

The Specialist serves as COR/AOR, and/or Activity Manager for programs/projects/activities which promote access to finance and improve public finances, including monitoring and evaluating program and activity performance, and providing financial oversight of programs and managed activities. The Specialist provides technical guidance to contractors, grantees, and other IPs, within the scope of agreements, and accepts deliverables from contractors, grantees, and other implementing partners on behalf of the Mission. The Specialist identifies and facilitates access to finance and credit through contacts with local businesses, USG agencies, international organizations, entrepreneurs, and foreign embassies, and identifies and facilitates partnerships with financial institutions to increase market and trade opportunities in Ghana. The Specialist serves as liaison with donor groups focusing on financial services and domestic resource mobilization, preparing necessary documents, presenting the USAID and USG positions at meetings, and briefing Mission and Embassy management on issues and discussions. The Specialist maintains active dialogue with other donors, local organizations, think tanks, policy-makers, private sector stakeholders, and various GoG officials, on access to finance and public finances, building contacts to facilitate the dissemination of information, and coordination of activities. The Specialist works with Mission and interagency personnel and partners on finance and credit-specific policy reforms, and with public finance reforms, coordinating closely with USAID and other USG staff (especially around the Strategic Governance Initiative), donor organizations, high-level GoG officials, and the private sector. The Specialist contributes regular reporting requirements, such as field trip reports, quarterly accruals, procurement obligations and pipeline reviews, and quarterly financial reviews. The Specialist works closely with Monitoring and Evaluation Specialists and IPs to develop results frameworks for contract and grant activities, and to track and evaluate results achievement; analyzes data and results needed to confirm their continuing validity; takes the lead in developing performance information for annual results reporting to USAID/Washington; and, analyzes program performance and recommends changes in strategic and/or implementation approaches, as required.

c. Coordination with Partners, Donors, and the GoG

The Specialist maintains contact with USAID/Washington staff, especially the Africa Bureau, E3 Bureau, and the Bureau for Resilience and Food Security, to keep abreast of current developments and successful interventions; and, liaises with the Economic Office at the Department of State and with the Foreign Commercial Service in the Embassy, in order to maintain current knowledge of US strategic priorities, and to coordinate the USAID approach to improving access to credit and strengthening public finance. The Specialist responds to requests from partners, USAID/Washington, the GoG, and other donors on access to finance and public finance strengthening programs, activities, and their results, providing representation for the Mission and USAID/USG at national and regional technical conferences on issues of access to credit and public finances. The Specialist actively cultivates and maintains professional relationships and partnerships with development partners, private-sector entities, and the GoG to promote access to finance and credit, to increase domestic or foreign investment, and to strengthen public finances. And, the Specialist develops and maintains an extensive range of contacts with representatives of the Ghanaian public and private sectors, donors, investors, and financial institutions.

POSITION ELEMENTS

a. Supervision Received: The USAID Development Assistance Specialist (Financial Systems Strengthening) works under the very general supervision of the Chief of the USAID/Ghana Economic Growth Office, and the closer but general supervision of the Private Sector Team Leader. The supervisor makes assignments in terms of overall objectives and resources available. Completed work is reviewed in terms of achievement of established goals, effectiveness in meeting USAID and host-country objectives, and integration with other initiatives in the Mission. Some technical direction may come from other professionals in in the Mission, and/or directly from the Mission Director or Deputy Mission Director; in general, however, the Specialist will be expected to exercise considerable autonomy and best judgment in discharging the duties of the assignment.

b. Supervision Exercised: The Specialist has direct supervision of one subordinate CCN/FSN staff member. The Specialist may be required to act as Team Leader, in the absence or preoccupation of the Team Leader.

c. Available Guidelines: Available guidelines include USG program/project/activity guidance, rules, and requirements; USAID Mission Orders, Mission strategy, and other relevant reports; the Automated Directives System (ADS); USAID Mandatory and Standard Provisions, and the FAR and AIDAR; the CDCS; and, the Country Operational Plan, and other published and unpublished guidelines. Guidelines are often general in nature and not specific to the situation at hand, requiring considerable interpretation.

d. Exercise of Judgment: Substantial judgment (discretion) is used daily in providing technical opinion and guidance to USG, USAID, and GoG counterparts and colleagues, to IPs, and in representing USAID in stakeholder forums. Management decisions over certain IPs are at the discretion of the Specialist. Independent judgment is required for developing, implementing, and managing assigned programs/projects/activities, for reporting, and for other assignments. Substantial judgment is required in analyzing and determining whether or not to recommend approval of proposed programs/projects/activities, in choosing among alternative proposals, and in evaluating data for reliability.

e. Authority to Make Commitments: The Specialist exercises the authority given to CORs/AORs and Activity Managers, and may make administrative arrangements consistent with ADS guidance and Mission and HPNO policy. The Specialist takes action and establishes priorities based on available guidelines and professional judgment. Guidance is sought when needed, and superiors informed of activity and project status. Within the scope of the authority delegated, the Specialist may indicate to ranking counterpart officials that they will make a recommendation to USAID on a specific activity, issue, or problem. The Specialist has no independent authority to commit the USG to the expenditure of funds, but may negotiate ad referendum for the supervisors.

f. Nature, Level and Purpose of Contacts: The Specialist has a full range of contacts within the Mission, at all levels, and maintains contact with IPs implementing USAID-funded programs/projects/activities in the sector. Within the Embassy, contacts are with counterpart staffs, and with senior staff as needed. Host-government, Regional, local, and other contacts vary widely with the type of activity being implemented, and may be at any level – including Ministerial, Deputy Minister, etc. Frequent and substantive personal contacts with senior-level officials of the GoG, and with the private sector, are for purpose of explaining and defending USAID policies, objectives, and procedures, and to transmit and interpret GoG, Regional, and private-sector attitudes and concerns to senior USAID officials. In addition, the Specialist provides technical assistance and guidance on programming, budgeting, and strategy development best practices to USG staff, and GoG and NGO partners.

g. Time Expected to Reach Full Performance Level: One year.

10. AREA OF CONSIDERATION: The position is open to Cooperative Country Nationals (an individual who is a Ghanaian citizen – or a non-Ghanaian citizen lawfully admitted for permanent residence in Ghana).

All applicants must provide proof of eligible citizenship in their application. Non-Ghanaian citizens must attach copies of their permanent residency permit to their application to be eligible for consideration. No relocation expenses are provided to the job location, Accra-Ghana. If transportation to Accra is required, it will be the employee’s responsibility.
