I. BACKGROUND

USAID/Benin, a sustainable development mission, is currently staffed with 23 Beninese nationals (FSN), 4 US Direct Hire Foreign Service Officers, 4 US Personal Services Contractors (PSC), and 1 Third Country Nationals (TCN). The USAID/Benin program has an annual program budget of approximately $25 million, primarily for health. Education and gender equity are critical sectors for sustained economic growth, improved health (including fighting the spread of HIV/AIDS), and continued democratization.

USAID/Benin has approximately $10 million invested in numerous multi-year, multi-sectoral projects promoting gender equality and inclusion aim to ensure that marginalized Beninese groups gain confidence and actively participate in improving their own future. The program's goal is to achieve a more secure, equitable, and prosperous Benin through promoting improved equity and empowerment. The Security, Equity, and Prosperity (SEP) program is working to increase female participation in government, reduce gender-based violence (GBV), and increase women’s roles in their communities. It is also working to reduce barriers and increase opportunities for disabled people, out of school youth and other disadvantaged populations. Finally, the SEP program also supports important legal reforms, judicial sector capacity building and public awareness raising on issues such as the reduction of corruption and combating transnational organized crime.
II USAID SECURITY, EQUITY AND PROSPERITY PROGRAMS (SEP)

Program Objective and Intermediate Results:

The SEP Program Objective is to promote A more secure, equitable, and prosperous Benin. The three Intermediate Results are:

1. Improved Equity and Empowerment for Women and Girls:

   This IR focuses on increasing female participation in government, reducing GBV, and increasing women’s roles in their communities.

2. Increased Opportunities for Disadvantaged Populations:

   This IR focuses on building the capacity of disadvantaged populations in order to increase their opportunities to participate in the social, economic and political prosperity of Benin. “Disadvantaged populations” may include but are not limited to persons with handicaps, inhabitants of rural villages, and economically disadvantaged groups.

3. Strengthened Rule of Law:

   This IR focuses on advocating the adoption of important legal reforms and raise public awareness of key aspects of the Beninese criminal justice system to fight against corruption and transnational organized crimes. Since female representation and participation in the political system remains low in Benin, another key aspect of this IR is to ensure that the legal system is conducive towards having more women leaders in the government.

Currently, and into the near future, Security, Equity and Prosperity Program team will collaborate to develop several new activities under the SEP strategy, or possibly develop a new strategy.
