

USAID | CAMBODIA
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

Funding Opportunities

APS-442-14-000001 - USAID/Cambodia's Civil Society Annual Program Statement

The United States Agency for International Development (USAID) represented by its Mission to Cambodia is issuing an Annual Program Statement (APS) for the purpose of strengthening civil society engagement in processes that promote democracy, government accountability, and an enhanced respect for human rights. Youth engagement and gender equality are cross-cutting themes that must be integrated into all program activities. USAID/Cambodia plans to fund multiple awards exclusively to local organizations through this APS.

For detailed information regarding this APS, please refer to the full version of the APS and its amendments posted on: <http://www.grants.gov/>. Go to the section "Find Grant Opportunities" and search using the subject APS number.

An "Interested Applicants Conference" will be held on April 23, 2014. In order to participate, all interested applicants must register at the email address provided and will be notified of the place and time of the conference. Interested applicants must register in advance by emailing CambodiaAPS@usaid.gov and must provide the name of the participants, their titles, e-mail addresses and the name of the organization they represent, not later than April 21, 2014 at 4.00 p.m. local Phnom Penh time. Attendance will be limited to no more than two individuals per organization.

Any inquiries regarding this APS should be directed to CambodiaAPS@usaid.gov