The United States Government represented by the United States Agency for International Development (USAID)/Colombia, will hold an applicant's conference with Local Organizations interested in participating in the Public Opinion Activity (POA) Notice of Funding Opportunity (NFO/RFA).

The goal of this conference is to clarify aspects of the NFO/RFA, including how to register in SAM, how to obtain a DUNS Number and to discuss the questions submitted and to offer participants the opportunity to ask questions not submitted in writing. To the extent possible, some of those questions will be answered during the conference. In any case, all questions raised during the conference will be compiled, answered and publicly shared in writing, through www.Grants.gov and USAID/Colombia webpage.

Details of the conference are as follows:

1. Organizations interested in participating in the conference are required to pre-register by sending an e-mail to German Gutierrez to ggutierrez@usaid.gov by May 22, 2015, 3:00 P.M.
2. Interested organizations that do not pre-register will not be able to attend the conference since access must be arranged one day ahead of time. Responses to questions submitted or presented during the Conference, will be posted as an Amendment to the NFO/RFA in www.Grants.gov and USAID/Colombia webpage.
3. In order to accommodate as many organizations as possible, only three (3) persons per organization will be able to attend.
4. Registration of pre-registered organizations will start at 8:00 am on the day of the event.

5. The conference will be held in Spanish. However, applications and all documents related to the solicitation MUST be submitted in English.
6. Participants are encouraged to bring copies of the NFO/RFA to the conference. Copies will not be provided at the event.
