USAID Property Rights Program (PRP) is working to make it easier for people in Kosovo to buy, register, use, and sell property. This will give people more freedom and ability to pursue their dreams, provide for their families and start and grow a business.

Clear, Simple, and Modern Laws on Property Rights

PRP is working with the Government of Kosovo to overhaul and modernize the many laws that affect property rights, through the National Strategy on Property Rights (adopted on January 18, 2017).

Legal acts that have been adopted or are in process, to date

PRP is currently supporting GoK ministries and agencies in developing the extensive legislation – over 65 legal initiatives.

Timely Decisions by Courts on Property Rights Cases

PRP is working with the Kosovo Judicial Council and the Basic Courts of Peje, Ferizaj, and Gjilan to apply improved practices that reduce delays and increase the courts’ performance in adjudicating property rights cases.

Disposition time of property cases decreased by 33%

Disposi6on time of property cases decreased by 33%

PRP has analyzed over 7,000 closed and pending civil cases since December 2015.

Processing time for a case to be scheduled for a preparatory hearing decreased by 69%.

Defects in claims cause many cases to never reach their first preparatory hearing. PRP is employing a case screening process to identify cases that are free of claim defects so that they can be processed forward.

Clear Information on Property Rights

Clear Information on Property Rights

PRP is helping municipal governments improve their services to citizens on property rights, by making the registration process more efficient and by providing citizens with easy-to-understand information on how to register their property. PRP has also developed a second-generation e-kiosk that provides property-related documents, along with civil status documents. In addition, PRP is helping municipal governments protect and preserve their cadastral archives from loss or damage.
