FEWS NET continues to monitor food security conditions in areas mapped in purple. Somali Region remains an area of high concern for FEWS NET. Classification of food security outcomes will be updated soon pending the collection of additional information.