ADS Chapter 523 – Foreign Service Assignment Travel

523.1 OVERVIEW

This chapter provides the policy and procedures for travel by Foreign Service employees and members of their families in the United States and abroad. It also covers the storage and shipment of their furniture, household and personal effects, and motor vehicles.

523.2 PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITIES

a. The Bureau for Management, Office of Management Services, Travel and Transportation Division (M/MS/TTD), in conjunction with the Agency’s Office of Human Resources (O/HR), the Office of the Chief Financial Officer (M/CFO), and the Department of State, is responsible for developing and promulgating travel policies and procedures, and for administering and coordinating the travel and transportation activities for the Agency.

b. The traveler is responsible for performing official travel in accordance with the governing regulations and for the payment of any charges incurred through noncompliance with applicable regulations, regardless of who may have assisted the traveler in making travel arrangements. In addition, the traveler is also responsible for the value of tickets in his or her possession when purchased with Government funds or through the exchange of transportation requests.

The traveler is also responsible for making a conscientious effort to minimize costs of official travel, and will assume any additional expenses incurred for personal convenience.

523.3 POLICY AND PROCEDURES

523.3.1 Foreign Service Travel Policy

It is the policy of the Government that the Uniform Foreign Affairs Travel Regulations, 6 FAM 100, govern the travel of

- Members of the Foreign Service;
- Foreign Compensation (FC) schedule employees of Participating Agency Service Agreements (PASA), including commissioned officers of the Uniformed Services assigned to USAID programs overseas; and
- Members of their families.
These regulations also govern the shipment and storage of their furniture, household and personal effects, and privately owned motor vehicles. These regulations apply to travel and transportation within the United States as well as overseas.

For information on specific policies and procedures governing foreign service assignment travel, see the applicable reference section cited in the following list:
