

Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid
January 7, 2015

Ronald Reagan Building
Horizon Ballroom
1300 Pennsylvania Ave NW
Washington, DC 20004

Public Meeting Agenda:

2:00 p.m. Registration

2:30 p.m. Introductions and Opening Remarks

*Jack Leslie, Chairman, Weber Shandwick
Rajiv Shah, Administrator, USAID*

2:45 p.m. Discussion: Financing for Development Conference

*Daniella Ballou-Aares, Senior Advisory for Development, U.S. Department of State
Will Warshauer, President & CEO, TechnoServe
Cordelia Lonsdale, Engagement Advisor, Development Initiatives
Moderator: Alex Their, Assistant to the Administrator; Policy, Planning & Learning; USAID*

Key Questions:

- The First International Conference on Financing for Development (FfD) in Monterrey was transformative, acknowledging for the first time each country's primary responsibility for its own development and achieving recognition for the role of all financing for development. Should the third FfD Conference in Addis also aim to be transformative, and if so, what would a transformative agenda look like?
- How can the FfD Conference be made thoroughly multi-stakeholder, recognizing the roles that private philanthropy and the private sector have played and will commit to playing in supporting a post-2015 development agenda?

3:05 p.m. Audience Q&A

3:20 p.m. Discussion: Post-2015 Agenda

*Lindsay Coates, Acting CEO, InterAction
Tom Hart, CEO, U.S. Executive Director, ONE
Tony Pipa, Deputy Assistant to the Administrator; Policy, Planning & Learning; USAID
Moderator: David Beckmann, President, Bread for the World*

Key Questions:

- Where have the MDGs had the greatest impact and how can the post-2015 development agenda go farther to meaningfully address sustainability, advance global development, and be truly universal? What will define success this time around?
- On which issues and in which capitals can civil society engagement make the greatest impact between now and next September?

3:40 p.m. Audience Q&A

3:55 p.m. Closing Remarks

Rajiv Shah, Administrator, USAID
