TRANSFORMING OUR WORKFORCE

CULTURE OF LEADERSHIP AND ACCOUNTABILITY

The USAID Leadership Philosophy guides leadership development programs and practices across the Agency. The Philosophy embodies what it means to be a leader for everyone USAID employee, irrespective of position, level, or hiring mechanism, by articulating a common understanding of desired leadership practices and behaviors that all staff should demonstrate.

Through a collaborative process, Agency employees identified the leadership methods that will lead to an empowered and adaptable workforce that can thrive in our world’s increasingly complex and changing environments.

“I want to channel the passion and the sense of service that strengthen our core capabilities.”
