Occupational Safety and Health Protection for Staff of the US Agency for International Development

The Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970, Executive Order 12196 and 29 CFR 1960 require the heads of Federal agencies to furnish to employees places and conditions of employment that are free from job safety and health hazards.

Responsibilities of USAID

1. General Requirements
The USAID Administrator will furnish USAID employees places and conditions of employment that are free from on-the-job safety and health hazards.

2. OSHA Regulations
USAID will comply with applicable regulations of the Occupational Safety and Health Administration.

3. Reporting Hazards
USAID will respond to employee reports of hazards in the workplace.

4. Workplace Inspections
USAID will ensure that each workplace is inspected annually for hazardous conditions. USAID will post Notices of Unsafe or Unhealthful Working Conditions found during the inspections for a minimum of three working days, or until the hazard is corrected, whichever is later.

5. Correction of Unsafe Conditions
USAID will take prompt action to assure that hazardous conditions are eliminated. Imminent danger conditions will be corrected immediately.

6. Safety and Protective Equipment
USAID will acquire, maintain and require use of appropriate protective and safety equipment.

7. Safety and Health Training
USAID will provide occupational safety and health training for employees. Please email safety@usaid.gov to request training.

8. Reporting Accidents, Injuries and Occupational Illnesses
Supervisors must submit a supervisor’s report of accidental injury/illness for all work-related accidents, injuries or occupational illnesses experienced by employees under their supervision.

9. Safety and Health Committees
USAID will support any safety and health committees that are formed from management and employee representatives.

Employee Responsibilities

1. Compliance with Standards
Employees shall comply with all OSHA and approved USAID occupational safety and health standards, policies, and directives.

2. Safety and Protective Equipment
Employees shall use appropriate protective and safety equipment provided by USAID.

Rights of Employees and Their Representatives

1. Participation in Safety and Health Program
Employees and their representatives shall have the right to participate in the USAID Safety and Health Program. Employees shall be authorized official time for these activities.

2. Access to Records and Documents
Employees and their representatives shall have access to copies of applicable OSHA and other recognized standards and regulations; USAID safety and health policies and directives; accident, injury and illness statistics of the USAID.

3. Reporting Hazards
Employees and their representatives shall have the right to report unsafe or unhealthful working conditions to appropriate officials and to request an inspection of the workplace. The name of the employee making the report will be kept confidential if requested.

4. Freedom from Fear of Retaliation
Employees and their representatives are protected from retaliation, interference, coercion, discrimination, or reprisal for exercising any of their rights under the USAID Safety and Health Program.
