1. General Statement of Purpose of the Contract

This position is located in USAID’s Office of Acquisition and Assistance (OAA) in Kabul, Afghanistan. The incumbent serves as a team member in OAA, provides support to an Acquisition & Assistance (A&A) Specialists as the team manages the A&A process for the Mission and Embassy offices; assumes primary responsibility for small purchase procurements of simple to medium complexity such as a variety of “commercial off the shelf” (COTS) services and supplies, both locally and globally; serves as the operational expert on contract close-out, Audits and Vetting issues; prepares procurement-related memos, letters, disseminates documents and maintains procurement files; manages vetting requests, ensuring their accuracy and completeness, while also entering the vetting requests into the vetting database. The incumbent is also responsible for ensuring that the Contracting Officer(s) (CO) are properly notified upon receipt of the vetting results from the Washington vetting center.

The incumbent receives supervision and guidance from the Contracting Officer, Senior Acquisition & Assistant Specialist and other Acquisition and Assistance Specialists.

2. Statement of Duties to be Performed

The incumbent manages and monitors all contracting files and records in accordance with Agency and Mission guidance; reviews procurement files on a regular basis to ensure that all required and other relevant documentation (i.e., memos of negotiation, justifications) are included in the official award file; advises the appropriate A&A Specialist when omissions are noted and follows-up with the appropriate Mission personnel to ensure proper file maintenance.

The incumbent provides administrative support to the A&A team, to include Contracting Officer Representatives (COR) in tracking the Mission’s procurement plan, procurement actions, and the lifecycle of the Mission’s portfolio (e.g. option period and follow-on preparation). The incumbent will be required to follow up with contractors to obtain information request by the OAA and other documentation when applicable and document the files accordingly.

The incumbent coordinates with the Acquisition Specialists and follows-up with CORs to ensure Contractor Performance Reports (past performance reports) are conducted on a regular and timely basis; prepares and submits to the appropriate offices A&A reports and assists with data calls, as requested in a timely manner; serves as a first point of contact with partners on routine administrative issues related to contract closeouts; manages expired awards and the award closeout process in accordance with Agency and Mission specific guidelines.

The incumbent researches the Federal Acquisitions Regulation (FAR), USAID Acquisition Regulation (AIDAR), Department of State Acquisition Regulation (DoSAR), Automated Directive System (ADS), Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) and Acquisition & Assistance Policy Directives (AAPD)/Contract Information Bulletins (CIB) in order to provide the appropriate authorities, and ensure that documentation fully addresses the issues and provides clear and adequate justification for approval. Incumbent is required to provide advice and assistance to the other Mission offices in the development of their requesting package and Independent Government Estimate (IGE) and has responsibility to liaise with other Mission offices, as necessary, to resolve any issues and answer any questions that may arise as to specifications, timeframes, budgets, etc.

The incumbent assists the A&A Specialists in analyzing proposals/quotations received, performance cost/price analysis as appropriate, and may be authorized to negotiate directly with vendors to respond to questions related to proposals/quotations. In addition, the incumbent has the responsibility to prepare Purchase Orders or Contracts, as appropriate, for all services.

The incumbent prepares incrementally funded and other administrative modifications to A&A awards; ensures that:
   1) Justifications are provided where required,
   2) Specifications provided are clear,
   3) All required clauses are included, that funding data is correct;
   4) Sufficient funds are available to cover the cost of the procurement action prior to sending the documentation to the CO for their signature.
Under the direction of the CO and/or an Acquisition Specialist, the A&A Assistant prepares pre- and post-solicitations and sources-sought notices, as may be required from time to time. Using well established contracting methods and typical contract formats, s/he advises requestors on the appropriate type of contract mechanism to use and prepares Request for Proposals (RFP), Requests for Quotations (RFQ), and Invitation for Bids (IFBs), as appropriate, for procurements. The incumbent ensures that the procurements are in compliance with FAR, AIDAR, and other regulations; incorporates special conditions and requirements prior to submitting these documents to the Acquisition Specialist and/or the CO for review; assists the A&A team in the preparation of Request for Proposals (RFPs), Requests for Assistance (RFAs), Requests for Quotations (RFQs), Invitation for Bids (IFBs), and as appropriate, for Procurements that are of a more complex nature, as may be required from time to time.

In addition, the incumbent has the responsibility to:
1) Organize pre- and post-award conferences; collect and compile data for conferences and issue to the attendees;
2) Monitor proceedings to ensure integrity of the procurement process;
3) Review inquiries on solicitations to determine if questions require amendment to solicitation documents;
4) Obtain comments from supported Strategic Objective Teams (SOT), Mission Technical and Support Offices initiating the procurement, as well as from the CO; and
5) Respond in writing to offerors’ queries/questions in the appropriate and/or required Agency format. S/he obtains funds availability certification from the Office of Financial Management (OFM) for procurement instruments and, if required, the Regional Legal Officers (RLO) clearance prior to submitting to the contractor and CO, and/or the Executive Officer (EXO)/CO for their signature, as appropriate.

The incumbent may be assigned the duties under vetting support in which the incumbent would manage potential awardees in the vetting database, including initial entry/verification of vetting data, verification of potential awardees vetting status, submission of vetting or sub-vetting request, entry/update of award and sub-award data, coordination of additional information requests, and communication of vetting results.
