10. STATEMENT OF DUTIES:

1) General Statement of Purpose of Contract:

The Financial Management Specialist (FMS) position is a senior position expected to bring considerable professional USG experience at the technical and management level and has an excellent understanding of audit processes, primarily in the area of financial audit but includes program/performance audits, as well as familiarity with U.S. Government audit agencies. The incumbent will provide expert advice to Office of Financial Management (OFM) staff, technical teams, Mission management, agreement officers and implementing partners in the areas of financial analysis, audit management, financial reviews, financial management systems and procedures, management and internal controls, and pre-award assessment procedures. Supporting staff development within the Audit Management Division, the FMS serves as the adviser for financial audits, providing mentoring and training to OFM’s local professional financial analysts. This will consist of hands on training through coaching and mentoring and formal workshops/seminars. The incumbent should have strong communication skills and the ability to transfer knowledge to other staff. The incumbent will be a critical component on the audit management team as he/she, on a daily basis, serves as mentor and hands-on training for the Cooperating Country Nationals (CCNs) managing audits and numerous audit actions generated by these audits. The successful mentoring and capacity building of the CCNs through trainings of the audit process by the incumbent will assist OFM, Mission Management and Technical Teams respond to Congressional inquiries generated by audit reports and recommendations.

Please see Section 11: Area Of Consideration Position works in the capacity of a mentor to the CCNs in the Office of Financial Management and mentor and advisor on financial audit program in the Audit Management Division. The individual will work under the supervision of the USAID/Afghanistan Deputy Controller and/or Financial Management Officer and serves as principal advisor to the mentioned management on financial audit related matters.

The FMS along with the CCNs will collaborate with various USG officials and Implementing Partners including Afghan Government Officials, Non-Governmental Organizations and other multi-national organizations to support USAID/Afghanistan programs.

The USAID/Afghanistan Mission on an annual basis is subject to over sixty (60) audits performed by different audit agencies including the Special Inspector General for Afghanistan Reconstruction (SIGAR), Government Accountability Office (GAO), and USAID/Office of Inspector General (OIG). USAID’s audits in Afghanistan are particularly challenging due to a political environment that heavily scrutinizes the effectiveness of the USG’s development goals and results in Afghanistan. As such, the need to respond tactfully and rapidly to financial and performance audits with fact-based accuracy is paramount to the success of USAID programs. The incumbent will be at the forefront of ensuring accountability of USG funds in Afghanistan overseeing the largest and most complex financial audit program in USAID. Implementing the Administrator’s Accountable Assistance for Afghanistan (A3) Initiative, the Mission is required to audit all (100%) of the projects in Afghanistan amounting to $1.6 billion in FY 2017 and covering 50 USAID Partners and 91 projects. With such a monumental task, maximum coordination among USAID technical teams, the Director’s Office, OFM, the Development Outreach Coordinator (DOC) Office, Washington Office of Afghanistan and Pakistan Affairs (OAPA) and the State Department Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan (SRAP), respectively is also essential.

Serving as the Agency’s largest program globally, the USAID/Afghanistan program represents the single largest bilateral assistance program in the 50-year history of the Agency. With a program portfolio of over $6 billion, the Mission implements programs in a wide range of sectors, including: advancing democracy and governance institutions, stabilization, agriculture-led economic growth, public financial management, trade capacity building, health, education, women’s empowerment, and infrastructure. USAID/Afghanistan is leading President Obama’s "Afghan First" initiative to empower Afghans to lead their country’s development and reconstruction.

2) Statement of Duties to be Performed:

The incumbent plans, directs and administers a comprehensive on-the-job and structured mentoring and capacity building on financial analysis and audit response programs designed to increase the capability of the Cooperating Country National (CCN) staff to provide the Mission’s senior management with timely financial information for making decisions. S/he contributes to the development and management of USAID/Afghanistan’s financial analysis and auditing functions for programs including the management of work performed by SIGAR, Defense Contract Audit Agency (DCAA), U.S. and local Chartered Public Accountants (CPA) firms under the USAID Recipient-Contracted or Agency-Contracted Audit programs (ADS 591). Incumbent develops the financial analysis staff capability to provide advice and guidance to USAID/Afghanistan Mission staff regarding the financial soundness of project activities and regulatory requirements and acts as the final quality assurance verifier for all financial audit deliverables (e.g., reports and findings).

The incumbent must have a firm understanding of the USG program cycle, including project design, implementation, and monitoring and evaluation. In addition, the incumbent should have a familiarity with development approaches and best practices in a wide variety of audit and financial management areas.

In these capacities, the incumbent’s responsibilities and duties shall include the following functions:

1. Serves as the principal audit/financial management advisor and mentor supporting the CCNs at coordination of financial and program audits. Advises uniform guidance and procedures for audit and financial management of all appropriated and non-appropriated funds available to the Mission, including implementation of internal accounting controls to safeguard those funds and other USAID assets, as well as, identify respective vulnerabilities to prevent possible waste, fraud or abuse of funds.

2. Acts as the USAID technical expert involving the performance of comprehensive audits and examinations of all types of Mission and Host Government programs, to determine compliance with applicable legislation, regulations, policies and procedures to determine and evaluate the extent and quality of program and project implementation. Participates in the scheduling and establishing the scope of comprehensive audits of mission, contractor, cooperating country, and grantee financial transactions, and utilization of U.S., cooperating country, and third country funds, goods, and services with a program budget of more than $6 billion.

3. Serves as an advisor to senior USG officials and their staff regarding the financial implications of existing or contemplated agreements. Provides guidance on the financial management requirements of procurement instruments including the review of award proposals to ensure compliance with applicable USG laws and regulations.
   Assures that financing and reporting procedures conform to USAID’s financial and project management requirements. Evaluates the effectiveness of the implementation of USAID/Afghanistan programs, based upon internal control reviews and financial analysis of various financial management reports.

4. Provides mentoring and hands-on training to USAID OFM CCN staff including but not limited to formal technical financial training on topics and best practices related to audit, internal controls, and public financial management. Guides CCN staff in performing ongoing tasks such as financial audit management, the completion of quarterly accruals and the review of financial reports and grantee budget proposals.
   Coaches OFM financial analysts, helping them to serve in an advisory role for technical teams and OFM’s representative providing practical financial advice, analysis and recommendations on financial implementation and audit related matters.

5. Mentors the CCN staff in managing administrative and operational audit and financial management activities involved in accounting, internal control operations, and auditing of USAID Implementing Partners. Provides mentorship and training to CCN staff while they perform limited financial reviews of partner organizations’ accounting systems to determine if prospective grantees or contractors have adequate financial and administrative management capacity to administer USG funds. Reviews, critiques, and revises audit reports and prepares transmittal letters for dissemination of audit reports within the Mission, to contractors, and others as required by the audit engagements. Provides technical advice to the CCN staff and Mission management on the administration of the technical financial audit of program funds including the planning and coordination of audits as well as the monitoring of the status of open audit recommendations under the Mission’s Audit Management Resolution Program. Provides technical expertise to Mission management and CCN staff in the development of internal policies and procedures governing the status, execution, and conduct of audit and assessment programs.

6. Mentors financial analysts to coordinate and complete the annual Federal Managers’ Financial Integrity Act (FMFIA) review, the follow-up and closure of the Mission outstanding FMFIA weaknesses, and the documentation updates on audit and FMFIA issues required for quarterly MCRC meetings.

3) USAID Consultation or Orientation (if applicable):

The selected applicant shall proceed to the Washington, DC area for two weeks of mandatory training to complete the Foreign Affairs Counter Threat (FACT) and the Afghanistan Familiarization (FAM) courses (if FAM was not completed within the past five years and if FACT training did not include the ESCAPE Module) prior to proceeding to USAID/Afghanistan to commence duties as outlined in the statement of work. FACT and FAM are mandatory courses for service in Afghanistan.

4) Supervisory Relationship:

This position works in the capacity of a mentor to the CCNs in the Office of Financial Management and mentor and advisor on financial audit processes in the Audit Management Section under the Risk Management Team. The individual will work under the supervision of the USAID/Afghanistan Controller, and/or Deputy Controllers and/or Financial Management Officer and serves as principal advisor to the mentioned management on financial audit related matters. The incumbent should have strong knowledge transfer skills to develop a comprehensive capacity building plan for the CCNs, which includes formal trainings and on the job trainings.

5) Supervisory Controls:

The incumbent will be expected to work under the supervision of USAID/Afghanistan Controller, and/or Deputy Controllers and/or Financial Management Officer. Performs assignments with the involvement of CCN staff, referring difficult questions to the Division Chief or, in case of technical questions, to the Cognizant Technical Officer (CTO). Advice and recommendations are reviewed but rarely challenged or changed on technical grounds. Completed work is reviewed for soundness, completeness and conformity with policy and USAID procedures.
11. AREA OF CONSIDERATION:

According to ADS 309.3.3, a “USAID policy is that the use of CCNPSCs is preferred over the use of TCNPSCs in order to integrate the foreign assistance effort into the community, enhance the skills of the cooperating country’s population, and contribute to the local economy. USPSCs are also preferred over TCNPSCs with equivalent qualifications.”
