(ii) Who is eligible for return to his/her home country or country of recruitment at U.S. Government expense |
Background:

The United States Agency for International Development (USAID) Mission to Afghanistan is seeking a Third Country National (TCN) to provide services in the Office of Program and Project Development (OPPD), the Mission’s Program Office.

USAID/Afghanistan is USAID’s largest bilateral portfolio in the world, with over $13 billion spent on development programs since 2002. USAID focuses on building the capacity of the Afghan government, people, private sector, and civil society to take ownership of long-term development and reconstruction efforts. USAID’s strategy in Afghanistan focuses on three major areas: (1) expanding sustainable agriculture-led economic growth; (2) maintaining and enhancing gains in health, education, and the empowerment of women; and (3) improving the performance and legitimacy of the Afghan government. With an FY 2013 budget for Afghanistan of $1.8 billion, USAID continues to design and implement activities in a wide range of sectors including agriculture, business development, infrastructure (especially in energy), governance and rule of law, health, education, and gender.

Basic Functions of the Position:

Incumbent will be part of the Project Design Team in OPPD and report to the Project Design Team Leader. The incumbent will work with teams to plan and design USAID development activities in Afghanistan; will supervise and train/mentor Afghan Foreign Service National (FSN) to enhance their skills in project design and related areas as needed.

The incumbent will establish effective working relationships within USAID and the USG as well as the Government of Islamic Republic of Afghanistan (GIRoA) and international community, when appropriate. The nature of the position requires that the individual be highly knowledgeable of USAID’s development assistance programs, policies, and budget in order to effectively represent the Agency among the various entities.

Major Duties and Responsibilities:

Incumbent supports OPPD’s efforts to address design requirements for the Afghanistan Mission across the entire portfolio, ensuring compliance with USAID regulations and exercising quality control so the projects achieve the desired results. The Incumbent will perform the following duties:

1. Backstopping Technical Offices

The incumbent will work closely with staff from one or more of USAID/Afghanistan’s technical offices to ensure new project designs and modifications of existing projects are properly planned and carried out in a high-quality fashion. This requires extensive interaction with staff from the technical offices, the Office of Acquisition and Assistance, and the Office of Financial Management. Duties include: advising technical offices regarding Agency and Mission-specific rules for designing new projects and amending existing projects; backstopping one or more technical offices for project design work; and assisting technical office staff in preparing procurement and obligation documentation.
2. Preparing Design Documentation

The incumbent will be responsible for ensuring the documentation for new project designs and modifications of existing projects is fully compliant with Agency and Mission-specific rules, as well as with recommendations of the Special Inspector General for Afghanistan Reconstruction (SIGAR) and USAID’s Office of the Inspector General (OIG). Duties include: reviewing and drafting Concept Papers, Project Appraisal Documents, Action Memos, Project Authorizations, Results Frameworks, required analyses (gender, sustainability, etc.), required pre-obligation documents, and other design documentation; and facilitating the clearance process for design documents that often involve USAID/Washington staff and interagency colleagues at the U.S. Embassy in Kabul.

3. Leading Discussions and Reviews for Project Designs

The incumbent will work with a variety of people to arrange, facilitate, and document discussions regarding new project designs and the modification of existing projects. Duties include: Arranging and/or facilitating USAID reviews of Concept Papers and draft Project Appraisal Documents; drafting issues papers; arranging or participating in other formal and informal meetings and discussions regarding new project designs and modifications of existing projects; participating in meetings with officials from the Government of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan, donor organizations, private sector entities, and other development partners regarding project designs and modifications; and documenting information from key meetings and discussions to ensure these are taken into account during the project design and project modification process.

4. Supervise and Train Foreign Service National Staff

The incumbent will supervise Afghan Foreign Service National (FSN) staff members that directly support the Project Design Team. S/he will assign work to FSN staff in regular consultation with the Project Design Team Leader and be responsible for approving and tracking the Individual Development Plans of FSN staff. The Incumbent will also write the annual employee evaluations for the FSN staff he/she supervises.

The frequent turnover of FSN staff at USAID/Afghanistan means that quickly and effectively training new FSN staff is critical to enable those staff to make meaningful contributions to OPPD’s work. The incumbent will train and mentor FSN staff in all aspects of project design, including but not limited to the USAID Program Cycle, USAID’s Project Design Guidance, preparation of project design documentation (results frameworks, Project Appraisal Documents, etc.), pro-obligation procedures, and effective backstopping of technical offices. The Incumbent will endeavor to involve FSN staff extensively in OPPD’s work, exposing them to increasing levels of responsibility, substance and independence.

5. Serve as the Acting Project Design Team Leader

When the Project Design Team Leader is on leave or otherwise unavailable for an extended period, the incumbent may be asked to serve as the Acting Project Design Team Leader.
