   1. General Statement of Purpose of the Contract

   USAID/Afghanistan is the largest USAID mission in the world with an annual operating budget of close to $1.6 billion. The Mission development portfolio includes a broad range of infrastructure rehabilitation projects, support projects for public education and health, improving capacities within Afghan ministries, increasing agricultural production, food aid, economic growth, democracy and social program activities.

   The Cooperating Country National (CCN) Development Outreach and Communication Specialist Media reports directly to the USAID/Afghanistan Deputy Development, Outreach and Communications (DOC) Officer and through him/her to the Senior DOC Officer.

   The incumbent reviews, produces and disseminates information about Mission activities to inform the general public and build support for USAID programs. The incumbent acts as USAID/Afghanistan’s first responder to inquiries from the general public, local organizations, implementing partners and, as USAID/Afghanistan’s main link, to local media.
2. Statement of Duties to be Performed

Media Events Planning:
- Maintains a calendar of USAID/Afghanistan program events that require Development, Outreach and Communications (DOC) section support. Coordinates all aspects of public events, including preparation and dissemination of press releases and background information, protocol issues, site selection and preparation, staging and logistical issues, scheduling and maintaining contact with speakers, notification of appropriate US and local government officials and media, as well as on-site coordination of media. Maintains a contact list of Afghan media.
- Coordinates planning for interviews and photography with the Mission Director, technical officers, and the Public Diplomacy office of the U.S. Embassy to promote press and media coverage of Mission activities.
- Coordinates DOC planning for and coverage of media events with all United States Government (USG) agencies based in Afghanistan and international donor community partners.
- Advises USAID/Afghanistan staff on product branding, press events, press engagement and public messaging.

Media Liaison:
- Serves as the Mission’s sole contact with Afghan media to promote story ideas and feature stories on USAID programs.
- Monitors local and international media concerning USAID programs for the purpose of gauging the effect of the information dissemination strategy and to provide feedback about the programs.
- Coordinates with U.S. Embassy’s Public Affairs Section on major initiatives as required.
- Provides DOC and senior USAID staff with analysis of the number of times USAID projects/programs are mentioned in in the Afghan media and, as necessary, the progress of USAID programs in the Afghan media.
- Assists USAID officers, contractors, and grantees in developing appropriate public information programs. Responds to inquiries from the general public and media on USAID.

Strategic Communications:
- Facilitates information access and sharing within the Mission, with media and other branches of the U.S. government.
- Develops and implements a public information program to raise the profile of USAID activities in Afghanistan.
Admin Support duties:
- Acts as DOC digital archive librarian to develop and keep updated DOC office SharePoint and Shared Drive data.
- Acts as DOC public relations material librarian.
- Distributes USAID press releases to local media and fact sheets to the public and the mission staff.
- As required, writes or translates USAID media materials in English, Dari and Pashto.

3. Supervisory Relationship

The incumbent is supervised by the Deputy DOC officer who in turn reports to the Senior DOC Officer.

4. Supervisory Controls
