9. STATEMENT OF DUTIES

1. General Statement of Purpose of the Contract

The position is located in the USAID/Afghanistan, Office of Education (OED). OED manages the Mission’s education portfolio, which covers basic and higher education programs. OED is the primary liaison with the Ministry of Education (MoE), the Ministry of Higher Education (MoHE), and with bilateral and multilateral donor agencies such as World Bank, United Nations Children’s Fund (UNICEF), United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), Department for International Development (DFID), Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA), the Canadian aid agency, and other donors. In addition to these, the Office has liaison activities with other ministries and government entities, as appropriate. In 2018, the office manages 14 education projects that span in range from basic education to higher education projects to workforce development (including technical and vocational training). USAID/Afghanistan currently works with contractors, grantees and the Government of Islamic Republic of Afghanistan (GIRoA) directly and through the World Bank to: construct and rehabilitate schools, print and distribute textbooks; train teachers; develop competencies; build the capacity of MoE and MoHE at different levels to improve systems and transparency, strengthen and link community-based schools with the formal school systems; improve early grade reading; increase the enrollment of students at the different levels of the education system, develop the capacity of youth; increase private sector engagement in education, as well as a host of other activities.

The incumbent provides technical, programmatic, financial and management assistance to USAID/Afghanistan under a personal services contract. The incumbent serves as Project Management Specialist for education and assists the Mission in implementing the Agency's sector-wide education activities in Afghanistan. The incumbent has daily responsibility for managing and coordinating projects and activities with other USAID project managers, as well as with officials in the MoE, MoHE as well as with other ministries associated with implementation of education projects and activities, the U.S. Interagency, and other appropriate international agencies with offices in Afghanistan.

2. Statement of Duties to be Performed

Expert Technical Leadership and Reporting

The incumbent serves as a senior Afghan national in the technical areas of education in Afghanistan. The incumbent provides expert advice to Mission management and U.S. interagency staff, implementing partners and the host government on education programs, projects and activities. Based on tangible evidence the incumbent advises OED leadership on USAID’s interventions related to the specific programs such as early grade reading, teacher training, community based education; girls’ education; private sector partnership and engagement in the education sector; tertiary and higher education; improvements in access and quality of education; education management reforms, etc. The incumbent advises and recommends strategic plans, project and activity designs and implementation approaches that address the needs of Afghanistan within the USAID’s education priorities and goals.

The incumbent serves as Agreement Officer’s Representative and/or, Contracting Officer’s Representative (AOR/COR), and work on On-Budget Monitoring activities for one or more projects/activities that he/she will be assigned on. Given OED’s current portfolio, these awards are large in nature ($50-80 million) and require a keen ability to manage a complex and dynamic project implementation environment. The incumbent works closely with field on-site monitors and/or with Mission third party monitors to collect data required for reporting. As required, the incumbent represents USAID/Afghanistan as Project Management Specialist in meetings with project implementing agents, contractors, grantees, NGO's etc. and provides expertise to senior USAID/Afghanistan officials. The incumbent provides technical/programmatic support to short-term consultants including project updates; provide documentation and briefings, and accompanying consultants in meetings with Government of Afghanistan officials and USAID -funded partner meetings.

The incumbent also makes recommendations on how projects/activities operate to bring about efficient and effective results to optimize the impacts from USAID investments in education in Afghanistan. The incumbent advises and recommends to implementing partners on ways to expedite implementation of activities and achievement of key results. The incumbent also advises GIRoA on project/activity sustainability and facilitates smooth working relationships with the host government at various levels of administration, including the Minister or the Deputy Ministers and senior officials of MoE and/or MoHE.

The incumbent provides keeps electronic and hard-copy program documents; compose and regularly update program and project briefers, success stories, etc. Incumbent respond to calls for financial and programmatic data from within and outside USAID; coordinate/draft office correspondence related to the education portfolio and provide logistical and administrative support for short-term consultants including assistance before, during and after consultancies.

The incumbent provides expert customer service to clients seeking information about USAID-funded education activities, drafts and regularly update program and project briefers, success stories, and other program information. Respond to calls for financial and programmatic data from within and outside USAID. Recipients of such reporting could include but are not limited to USG and the Interagency, GIRoA, other donor agencies.

The incumbent participates in review missions of education programs, portfolio reviews and project proposals which involve institutional policy issues, indicating strengths and weaknesses of proposals, and seek ways to improve institutional arrangements and structures in order to promote growth and development of basic and higher education. Proposes necessary program methods, approaches, and extend, revise and adapt existing methodology to new and unusual situations, in relation to the application of educational technology, and capacity building of host country educational institutions and universities; the social, cultural, economic, governmental, political, and other characteristics of the programs/projects affect the administration and management of the programs to such a degree that significant program activities must be specifically designed and modified to accommodate them. Incumbent participates in education assessments; present and defend positions, as required, before strategy reviews.

Project Implementation and Program-Cycle Management

The Incumbent backstops and provides detailed follow-up to USAID-funded project activities, as part of the program cycle – strategy development; project and activity design and implementation; and monitoring, evaluation and learning. This includes internal acquisition and assistance documents, taskers and any other official documentation/correspondence, and action memos. The incumbent provides financial, administrative and project management oversight on behalf of USAID/Afghanistan for specific education projects, as assigned. This will include project design and closeout, as well as management of the complete obligation, earmark, commitment, disbursement and accrual process; travel within Afghanistan, to monitor education project activities and develop travel and site visit reports, as appropriate.

The incumbent organizes and maintains OED official project files and documents according to Agency guidelines and mission requirements, provides financial information on education projects, including provincial expenditures, pipeline information, etc. on a quarterly basis or when requested. Manages projects/activities from inception to completion, and is responsible for all facets of project design and development, including information gathering, needs assessments, feasibility studies, drafting of concept papers and scopes of work, project budget formulation, and evaluation of bids for major projects and programs.

The incumbent coordinates all correspondence and document management between USAID/Afghanistan, project/activity implementing agencies, the MoE and MoHE and other organizations regarding education issues and challenges as they arise, and as necessary responds to inquiries and maintains coordination with other education stakeholders who are engaged in similar activities. Prepares for and coordinates meetings with the MoE, MoHE, regional representatives for World Bank, UNICEF, UNESCO, DFID, Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA), and other international donor agencies as assigned. Ensures coordination of assigned USAID education program activities with all other organizations are met.

The incumbent coordinates with implementing partner or stakeholder staff for assigned activities and projects. Coordinates with contracting and contracted personnel to drive projects/activities to completion. Reviews proposals/requests for approval in association with host country counterparts, determines their suitability for project financing; performs all functions related to new education project design/development in order to orient project focus in priority areas and areas of emerging needs. The incumbent conducts directly, as a member of a team and with/without staff support, technical analysis; develops cost estimates, institutional capacity assessments, equipment requirement projections, and training needs assessment. The incumbent manages the schedules of projects/activities as a representative of USAID in Afghanistan.

The incumbent drafts necessary documentation and leads reviews related to project amendments, project contracting, standard USAID reports, and project outreach and communication. The incumbent participates in the review of contracts/agreements in consultation with the Office of Acquisition and Assistance (OAA) and provides guidance to and oversight of contractor actions concerning project/activity procurement and the use of project/activity funded assets.

The contractor is eligible for temporary duty (TDY) travel to the U.S., or to other Missions abroad, to participate in the “Foreign Service National” Fellowship Program, in accordance with USAID policy.
