8. SECURITY LEVEL REQUIRED: As an employment precondition, the successful candidate is required to obtain U.S. Embassy Kabul, Afghanistan Regional Security Office (RSO) Security Clearance.

9. STATEMENT OF DUTIES

   1. General Statement of Purpose of the Contract

   The USAID/Afghanistan Office of Health and Nutrition (OHN) manages a $120 million health and population portfolio with 14 active awards, serving as the primary health and population development liaison between the U.S. Government (USG) and the Government of Afghanistan (GoA). The OHN team liaises with the Ministry of Public Health (MoPH) and with bilateral and multilateral donor agencies, such as the Canadian Embassy, the European Union (EU), the Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA) and Japanese Embassy, the World Bank (WB), the World Health Organization (WHO), UNICEF, and the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA). In addition, OHN has less intensive liaison activities with other ministries, such as Education, Higher Education, Rural Rehabilitation and Development, Planning, Women’s Affairs, and Finance.

   Under the supervision of the OHN Director or his/her designee, the incumbent serves as a team leader for the health service delivery or health systems teams. In this capacity the incumbent leads, manages, mentors and coaches a technical team (health service delivery or health systems) comprised of Cooperating Country National (CCN) staff. The incumbent provides expert technical, administrative, financial, and management assistance to OHN. The incumbent also serves as program specialist, assisting USAID/Afghanistan to implement the Agency’s sector-wide health activities in Afghanistan. The incumbent has daily responsibility for managing and coordinating project activities with officials in the MoPH as well as with other ministries and international agencies associated with the implementation of health, population and nutrition development projects.

The incumbent must analyze and use data for decision-making, and advise others on data findings and implications for program decisions and activities. The incumbent will also work closely and collegially with colleagues on program and project designs, proposal reviews, work plans, and strategies, and will coordinate meetings or visits to USAID and the U.S. Embassy with counterparts in the U.S. Mission and with external counterparts in the health sector.

This is a professional management position that requires leadership, technical skills and program experience – particularly with regard to primary health care, maternal, newborn and child health, family planning/reproductive health, nutrition development, infectious disease, and health systems strengthening. The position requires well-developed interpersonal and managerial skills, sound judgment and the ability to develop professional relationships within USG agencies and organizations, USAID, GoA counterparts, U.S., international, and Afghan technical organizations, Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs), and Civil Society Organizations (CSOs). The incumbent maintains contact with MoPH officials, other organizations already named and service delivery personnel at all levels in Afghanistan, and represents USAID in numerous high level technical, program and donor consultations and working groups related to health programs in Afghanistan. The incumbent assists in the coordination of USAID health, population and nutrition development project activities with other departments within USAID as well as with donors and other organizations named above.

2. Statement of Duties to be Performed

The incumbent serves as a team leader for CCN staff on either the OHN health service delivery or health systems team. The incumbent leads the team in programmatic planning and goal setting. The incumbent is responsible for assisting team members to set appropriate performance and professional development objectives. The incumbent monitors team members’ performance to ensure USAID and the OHN reach overarching health and population development goals for Afghanistan.

The incumbent serves as an expert technical officer who advises on and in consultation with colleagues and the OHN Director, manages corrective actions with counterparts to ensure USAID and OHN policies, strategies, programs, projects supported by U.S. health assistance are of the greatest possible impact on health. The incumbent therefore is expected to convey clearly and logically, internationally-accepted public health concepts and cost-effective primary and secondary level service delivery interventions and approaches, best practices and lessons learned, in relation to the status of health in general and in particular, to that of women and children in Afghanistan. The incumbent also serves as an OHN point of contact with the MoPH, other donors, implementing partners and other USG counterparts for the projects, activities or thematic areas in health that s/he is assigned.
The incumbent serves as Certified Agreement/Contracting Officer’s Representative (A/COR), On-Budget Monitor (OBM), or alternate for any of these positions as designated by the Mission’s Office of Acquisition and Assistance (OAA). The incumbent is responsible for management actions relating to agreements, grants, or contracts, for implementation in the health portfolio. In the AOR/COR/OBM capacity, the incumbent is responsible for monitoring contractors’ and grantees’ performance and for regularly engaging with project staff (USAID’s “implementing partners”) and local beneficiaries. The incumbent exercises considerable initiative and independent judgment in planning and managing project activities.

Technical Leadership, Program Representation, and Stakeholder Engagement

- Provides expert technical guidance and leadership related to primary health care, maternal, newborn and child health, as well as family planning/reproductive health, infectious disease, nutrition development and health systems strengthening across USAID/Afghanistan, OHN, and interagency.

- Provides strategic technical direction and preparation of strategy updates, program area analysis, presentations, and briefing materials.

- Maintains contacts with high and mid-level host government officials and represents USAID in policy, strategy, program, technical and coordination meetings, and in working committees/groups. - Establishes and maintains cordial and effective contacts and relationships with representatives of donor and international and national technical organizations, and representatives of the private sector, NGOs, and other USAID implementing partners.

- Develops and supports the dissemination and discussion of information concerning the Mission’s health programs and participates in seminars, workshops, and conferences.

- Assists in the coordination of OHN strategies and program/project activities with other technical offices within USAID/Afghanistan.

- Represents USAID and the OHN in various committee meetings constituted for review and to provide technical inputs on issues concerned with a policy, strategy, and/or project or program.

Project Management

Develops and manages health programs undertaking detailed information analysis, project design, monitoring, evaluation, budget management and general oversight. The incumbent exercises initiative and independent judgment in strategic activity planning and identifies problems that require follow-up actions. The incumbent interacts with program/project managers of several implementing partners, technical and management advisors and host country counterparts. Specific responsibilities include:

- Reviews proposals from host country counterparts and other sources that are submitted for assistance to determine their suitability for project financing. Assists in the analysis of needs, conceptual design of activities, and the preparation of program descriptions, amendments, and related statements of work.

- Prepares detailed scopes of work for technical assistance and training services for project components, and explores various procurement options. Holds detailed discussions with host country counterparts on procurement and takes necessary action for services and/or commodities procurement.

- Participates in Mission Technical Evaluation Committees (TEC) to evaluate and select contractors and grantees. Provides technical review of project performance in terms of achieving physical and financial targets and attainment of the project’s goal and purpose.

- Oversees, evaluates, and monitors contractors’/grantees’ performance, project budgets, including costs, and progress by making on site-visits, as permitted; also assists other OHN colleagues in portfolio administration.

- Has significant and primary responsibility for designing, managing and monitoring of OHN program funding for health projects. Liaises closely with USAID’s Office of Financial Management (OFM), Office of Program and Project Development (OPPD), OAA and various Mission committees, such as the on-budget committee that oversees budget-related issues concerning direct USAID assistance to the GoA, and maintains proper records pertaining to program/project decisions and budgets.

- Exercises considerable initiative and independent judgment in planning and implementing program/project activities. Monitors and intervenes as necessary to ensure that the program/project activities are responsive to terms and conditions of relevant USAID grants/contracts/agreements, as well as that they meet the expectations of project beneficiaries.

- Manages performance of financial reviews and of analyses of a project’s financial parameters, and prepares project-related financial and budget projections. Ensures that all audit and evaluation requirements are fulfilled.

- Reviews grants/contracts/agreements in consultation with the Acquisition and Assistance Specialist in the USAID/Afghanistan/ OAA assigned to work with OHN, and provide guidance to and oversight of implementing partner actions concerning project procurement and the use of project-funded assets.
As AOR/COR/OBM, maintains accurate and complete project files in conformance with OAA compliance requirements. Reviews financial reports from implementing partners, monitors expenditures, processes contractor invoices, prepares financial pipeline reports, accruals reports, and project modification requests. Tracks commitments, obligations and de-obligation actions. Completes closeout activities for projects that are completed or terminated.

Program Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E) and Reporting

- Provides leadership and works closely with OHN Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E) team specialist and AORs/CORs/OBMs to ensure that outputs and impact of activities are analyzed periodically and data are used to guide partner performance management.

- Tracks program/project achievements or shortfalls against targets and deliverables in periodic program/project reporting, and requests corrective actions if needed. Drafts and updates informative documents such as project briefing memoranda and papers, project amendments, project procurement documents, fact sheets, and other outreach and communication products.

- Defines and reports on the results from USAID/Afghanistan’s investment in the public health sector through annual reports, studies etc., and drafts summaries, briefing memoranda and press releases.

- Develops information tracking systems, coordinates M&E, and analyzes data. Maintains project and program files, including databases on project performance, implementation progress, disbursement of funds, and achievement of objectives.

- Applies data analysis findings to future program/project designs, strategy, and activities.

- Drafts official USAID documentation such as letters to host governments, embassies, and partners; annual reports; implementation letters; assistance and acquisition documents; action memoranda and other documents related to public health.

Staff Supervision

- Assists supervised employees to establish appropriate Work and Development Plans (WDP) that set appropriate performance objectives and criteria in support of project and OHN team goals. Assists employee to plan and schedule training needed to achieve AOR/COR certification.

- Mentors and supports employee as needed in performance of their duties, identifying potential resources and opportunities for professional development.

- Monitors employee performance, providing needed support and direction to facilitate successful achievement of performance objectives.

- Prepares annual Employee Performance Reports (EPRs) for review by the OHN Director.
