10. STATEMENT OF DUTIES:

   1) General Statement of Purpose of Contract:

   USAID/Afghanistan’s Office of Economic Growth (OEG) is recruiting for an Economic Program Analyst (Monitoring & Evaluation) who will serve as the lead monitoring and evaluation expert. Reporting directly to the Deputy Director in the Office of Economic Growth the incumbent provides substantial assistance to effectively organize information for performance monitoring; analyze OEG’s complex portfolio with an overall budget of $630 million with over 25 active and planned awards providing recommendations to the OEG Office Director, Deputy Director, and OEG team leads. The incumbent also communicates the success of OEG to the appropriate audiences.

   In this position, the incumbent is responsible for providing support in all aspects of performance management, program strategy design, strategic field oversight, coordination of field performance monitoring activities, management of information systems and Mission required performance reports for OEG.

   The incumbent coordinates all performance monitoring and evaluation activities with Contracting and Agreement Officers Representatives (CORs and AORs), On-budget Monitors, and Activity Managers to ensure implementation of the Mission’s Multi-tiered Monitoring Approach and compliance with Afghan Info and other similar management information systems. In performing these tasks, the incumbent interacts with implementing partners’ project managers, Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E) representatives, advisors, and host country counterparts. It is therefore essential that the incumbent have outstanding knowledge of the multi-tiered monitoring data triangulation from different stakeholders which is the model currently being implemented in Afghanistan.

The incumbent provides in-depth technical and administrative support in areas of costing/financing, economic analysis, economic focused growth trends and strengthening activities in the public/private sectors. The work of the incumbent requires patience, persistence, and continual fact checking, understanding of economic patterns, gathering of up-to-date information and updating of all materials.

The incumbent researches, writes, and edits USAID situation reports (such as briefing papers) based on information collected from USAID technical offices, implementers, reports, meetings, and other sources. Prepares status and other reports and memoranda regarding problems, and corrective actions. Reports shall be of sufficient scope so as to be useful in fully monitoring the progress of activities. Where problems are noted, the incumbent will recommend corrective actions.

The incumbent prepares, checks, revises, and shares timely and accurate information concerning OEG activities, including fact sheets, project briefs, lessons learned, success stories, presentations, and other public information material in print, PowerPoint, maps, audio, video and HTML formats. Materials must be written in clear and concise English, and prepared with both the media and general audiences in mind.

The incumbent also assists in consolidating written responses to time-sensitive taskers for a variety of Mission, Embassy, and USG audiences, and plays a critical role in building OEG capacity in program performance monitoring functions.

Successes will be communicated to Government of Afghanistan (GoA), media, USAID/Washington, implementing partners, and the general public. USAID/Afghanistan has a highly complex and dynamic monitoring and evaluation portfolio.

This position requires substantive situational assessment, interpretation, judgement, and strong decision-making skills, staying abreast of political, social, and economic developments which may affect USAID activities, and identifying and assessing the importance and impact on USAID programs.

2) Statement of Duties to be Performed:

In this position the incumbent supports the OEG on a wide variety of responsibilities including:

1. Serves as the M&E team leader in the Office of Economic Growth.
2. Serves as the main point of contact in Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E) tasks, and is responsible for planning, coordinating and reporting of evaluation and monitoring activities.

6. Assists and guides Project Managers and USAID implementing partners on the development, fine-tuning and revisions of activity level monitoring and evaluation plans (AMEP); provide guidance on performance indicators and log frame development, the Mission’s monitoring strategy and policy, statements of work for third party monitoring and evaluations, Afghan Info data calls, Data Quality Assessments (DQAs), Performance Plan and Report (PPR) and Portfolio Reviews.
7. Provides technical leadership on the design, implementation, monitoring and evaluation of activities and works to ensure that partners meet their performance targets in accordance with agreement or contract requirements.
8. Advises and works closely with all office staff – US Direct Hires, US Personal Services Contractors (USPSCs), Third Country Nationals (TCNs), Eligible Family Members (EFMs) and Cooperating Country Nationals (CCNs) on all aspects of performance monitoring. Communications, countdown meetings, costing, cost projections tools, resource allocation and resource generation. Manages and coordinates data collection related cost financing, cost effectiveness and cost benefit analyses.
9. Liaises with the Office of Project and Program Development (OPPD) through monitoring and evaluation backstops and the Mission assigned program economist. Attends strategic planning meetings, assists with refinements to the Mission’s Performance Monitoring Plan (PMP) and other strategic documents. Coordinates all external evaluations and Data Quality Assessments.
10. Identifies, analyzes and prepares public information materials; reporting program results and performance indicators in a manner that can easily be understood by external stakeholders and the general public.
11. Conducts cost financing research, data collection and analysis; designs sound monitoring and evaluation methodologies; provides illustrative studies and research that includes evaluation of specific economic growth programs leveraging private sector resources, costing of private and public sector services, translate research findings and recommendation into best practices and policies that constructs sound and economically appropriate programming.
12. Develops and/or applies appropriate risk assessment instruments to ensure that risk is shared appropriately between potential partners and USAID;
13. Provides technical oversight on his/her assigned programmatic activities, ensuring performance indicators are tracked accurately and used to revise strategy as necessary. Incumbent coordinates with other members of the office to ensure data submitted on activates are complete and consistent for reporting in annual report, portfolio reviews, annual budget, pipeline analysis and other required reports.
14. On a regular basis reviews and tracks host country sector expenditures, identifies and proposes concrete actions (e.g policies, reorganization, training etc) to address sector needs/gaps.
