492.3.2 Eligibility Criteria

Effective Date: 05/14/2008

To be eligible for inclusion on the USAID Employee Memorial, the following criteria must be met:

a. A USAID-associated employee (as defined in 492.3.1) is eligible for inclusion on the USAID Employee Memorial if the USAID-associated employee dies as a result of an injury sustained while in direct performance of his/her duty, unless the injury or death is

- (1) Caused by the willful misconduct of the USAID-associated employee,
- (2) Caused by the USAID-associated employee's willful intention to cause injury or death to himself or herself or of another individual,
- (3) Caused by intoxication or a willfully induced physical and mental state that causes impairment of judgment, or
- (4) Due to natural causes.

b. Overseas. A USAID-associated employee's name is eligible for inclusion on the USAID Employee Memorial if the USAID-associated employee's death is a direct result of the active performance of official duties by the employee. This includes the following:

- Travel to and from overseas post;
- Death due to disease or other cause directly related to overseas duty;
- Other hazards distinctive to service overseas, such as natural disasters, crime related to overseas assignments, or death related to status of medical facilities overseas; or
- Death as a direct result of war or capture, detention or other restraint by an armed force or insurgent group hostile to the US.

c. Washington. A USAID-associated employee's name is eligible for inclusion on the USAID Employee Memorial if the USAID-associated employee's death is a direct result of the active performance of official duties by the employee. In Washington, this includes, but is not limited to,

- Death resulting from terrorist attacks (biological, chemical, or explosive);
- Natural disasters; or
- Other catastrophic events.

492.3.3 Nominating Procedures

Effective Date: 05/14/2008

Procedures for nominating eligible employees for inclusion on the Employee Memorial are as follows:

a. Nominations may be made by family members, co-workers or former co-workers, supervisors or managers of the deceased employee. All nominations should be in writing and submitted to either the Bureau/Independent Office AMS Officer (in Washington) or to the Mission EXO (overseas). Nominations should include the following information:

- Employee's name,
- Date and location of death,
- Cause of death,
- Circumstances related to the death that meet the eligibility criteria listed in 492.3.2, and
- Justification or other documentation supporting the nomination.

b. Nominations will be received by either the AMS or the EXO and forwarded up for approval through the appropriate chain of command to the Assistant Administrator/Independent Office Chief, then forwarded to the USAID SMC.

c. Upon receipt by the Committee of a nomination, the Agency Counselor will notify the DAA/OHR and request the appropriate files.

d. The Deputy Assistant Administrator, HR, at the direction of the SMC, collects information, investigates claims, and makes recommendations to the SMC on the addition of names to the USAID Employee Memorial. In addition, the DAA/OHR designates an OHR staff member to carry out the responsibilities associated with the SMC. The Office of Human Resources forwards, as necessary, to the Chair of the USAID SMC the appropriate case files with all pertinent information that meet the eligibility standards (as stated above in 492.3.1). These files must be forwarded to the Committee Chair within four weeks of OHR being notified of the nomination of a USAID-associated employee. In addition, OHR performs the following functions:

- Acts as liaison with members of the public and staff of Bureaus, Independent Offices, and Missions, advising them of the guidelines for the inclusion of names on the memorial and the status of pending cases;
- Collects all pertinent data on individuals that may be honored on the employee memorial;
- Synthesizes and organizes data into recommendations for the consideration of the SMC;
- Submits reports, as necessary, to other Offices and U.S. government units;
- Works with the Counselor to inform families of decisions made concerning the inclusion of a name on the employee memorial;
- Ensures that proper documentation is included in the employee's Official Personnel File; and
- Coordinates with the Bureau for Legislative and Public Affairs (LPA) to implement the annual agency memorial recognition ceremony.

e. Within four weeks of receipt of a nomination, the Chair must convene a meeting of the SMC to consider the nomination. Acting on behalf of the Agency and the Administrator, the SMC reviews all information concerning possible names to be memorialized and ensures that decisions concerning names for inclusion on the memorial are equitable and made on the basis of merit of each individual case. In undertaking its review, the Committee is also responsible for requesting, as needed, further justification or documentation for including names on the memorial, for disapproving the inclusion of an individual, or recommending a more appropriate form of recognition. Finally, the Committee recommends selected names for the approval of the Administrator. The Committee is responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of all memorial-related deliberations.

f. All nominations recommended for addition to the USAID Employee Memorial are forwarded to the Administrator for final approval.
