4.0 OTHER SIGNIFICANT FACTORS

Supervision Received

The PSC will receive supervision, policy direction and guidance from the Executive Officer or direct hire designate, and at times acts as Acting Executive Officer in his/her absence. The incumbent is expected to work independently and exercise considerable judgment in carrying out his/her responsibilities. Work is assigned primarily relative to desired results, suggested approaches and performed in consultation with the direct hire supervisor who will approve incumbent's annual work objectives. Performance is evaluated primarily in terms of accomplishments. The incumbent will receive minimal oversight in carrying out his/her daily tasks and achieving longer-term work objectives.

Supervision Exercised

The incumbent is responsible for supervising local staff and preparing their performance evaluations. S/he will also oversee the work of selected short-term rovers providing administrative and clerical assistance to different offices in the Mission throughout the year.

Authority to Make Commitments/Obligations

The incumbent is not authorized to make financial commitments on behalf of the USG. However, because of the incumbent's expertise and standing as a highly qualified professional in his/her field, his/her conclusions and recommendations will be taken into account by USAID direct hire colleagues who have such decision-making authority regarding funding commitments and obligations.

Guidelines

Guidelines include the Automated Directives System (ADS), the Foreign Affairs Manuals (FAM), the Federal and AID Acquisition Regulations, the Standardized Regulations, Federal Travel Regulations, Local Orders, Post's local compensation plan (LCP) and GOG regulations and laws.

Level and Purpose of Contacts

The incumbent must be able to communicate with all levels of mission personnel (local and overseas) and outside candidates on personnel management, procurement, contracting issues, and travel. Personal contacts include USG officials at the US Embassy in Ghana, and USAID/Washington Africa Bureau.

Skills and Abilities

Good leadership, communication, and supervisory management skills, initiative, discretion, and organization skills, interpretation of guidelines and analytical skills are necessary to accomplish different work situations in a timely manner. S/he must have strong computer, communication and information management skills.

Physical Demands/Work Environment

This is a low-to-moderate physically demanding position. The incumbent will be physically located at the US Embassy USAID Building in Accra. Secondary locations will include travel to our sub office in Tamale on as needed basis
